FRANCES FREER SCHOLARSHIP FOR EDUCATION

Held by The Ashland County Community Foundation

Frances Freer grew up in Ashland, graduating from Ashland High School and Ashland College. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church. She began her career as a supervisor before coming to Jeromesville School to teach 3rd grade. Miss Freer retired from the Hillsdale School District with more than 35 years of experience. She had a passion and love for education and young people. In 1970, along with Louise LaFrance and Rheba Dilgard, Miss Freer organized the Alpha Pi chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa sorority to recognize teachers who have proved themselves to be strong, efficient, professional educators. The purpose of ADK is to promote high standards of education and to assist in strengthening the status of the teaching profession while engaging in altruistic programs and community projects. Miss Freer wished to continue helping students become excellent teachers so she established a scholarship for Ashland County students in their junior or senior year of college or university work pursuing a degree in education.
