ASHLAND COUNTY NORTH CENTRAL STATE COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

Held by The Ashland County Community Foundation

This scholarship is intended to help Ashland County residents who are furthering their education at North Central State College. Originally established by Tim and Sandi Rowsey, this scholarship represents many friends of North Central State College who wish to help students further their education at that institution. It is our hope that this scholarship will help an individual who is pursuing education, but needs some additional scholarship help.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Ashland County residents who are current year graduating seniors or who have earned a high school diploma
- Accepted to North Central State College

Please be sure the following materials accompany your application (in listed order). Do not send materials separately.

- Completed application form
- Essay (not more than 300 words) What are your career plans and why is this scholarship important to you?
- Student Aid Report (SAR) of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- Transcript of grades
